KOSKIDECOR ECO TRANSPARENT PANELS

Koskisen is a Finnish company that produces many high-quality plywood products for structural and decorative uses. KoskiDecor decorative plywood is composed of Finnish Baltic birch with a layer of colored, translucent melamine coating each side. The translucent coating emphasizes the plywood's natural grain and is protected by a transparent melamine film for durability. As a finished product, Koskisen plywood is an ideal material for furniture and millwork.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- High-quality Finnish birch plywood
- Both sides of the panel are coated with translucent color and overlaid with a durable transparent film
